SERMON NOTES · JONAH 1:4-17

Five Means of Grace in the Storm

THE BIG IDEA

In the severe storms of our lives, God relentlessly pursues us not to destroy us, but to empty us of our self-reliance and draw us to repentance through diverse, sovereign means of grace.

1 The Storm That Empties Us

Jonah 1:4-5

2 God Speaking Through Unexpected Voices

Jonah 1:6

3 Providence Turning Chance into Certainty

Jonah 1:7

4 The Question That Reveals Our Identity

Jonah 1:8-12

5 The Prepared Fish and the Shadow of the Cross

Jonah 1:13-17

FOR REFLECTION

Personal Application: Read Jonah 1:17 and 1 Corinthians 10:13. God prepared a great fish to catch Jonah when he was sinking into the deep. Where do you need to stop clinging to your own solutions and trust that God has already prepared His way of grace and rescue for you?

Teaching by Pastor Hoon Kim, N.E.W. Church. Translated from Korean with the help of AI. Shared on 15 November 2026, before its full review.
Free to listen, download, and share: newexodusseminary.org/en/2026-09-27-new-jonah-1-five-means-of-grace-in-the/